With 2020 being such a difficult year, Riverview Resilient team member Rachel Tomczek, and R2 team facilitator, Maren Van Nostrand, were eager to help people envision paths toward hopefulness. They asked Snoqualmie Valley folks the simple question, “What Brings you Hope?” Then they worked with videographer, Steven Bell, to create a five-minute video featuring everyone’s answer, along with picturesque views of the valley, and music.

Riverview Resilience would like to thank the following contributors, in order of appearance: Rachel Tomczek, Maren Van Nostrand, Lisa Hart, Lydia Zurray, Chris Carlson, Clara Carlson, McKenzie Bright, Julianna White, Jake Dimarzio, Brennon Lee, Jaclyn Huntzinger, David Zuray, Conie Berg, and Tim Ryan.

We are so happy to share this with you!

Thank you!
I am very excited to join the Snoqualmie Valley Community Network team as a Family Connection Coordinator for Snoqualmie Valley School District and Riverview School District. I am originally from Mexico City and moved to the United States at age 12. My immigrant background has motivated me to help limited resources and language barrier families throughout the community. I have been involved in Youth programs for 15 years from Spanish teaching, tutoring and after school programs. I hold a very extensive knowledge on Child Development and educational background. With my abilities, willingness and personal experiences my goal is to reach and connect with English learner families and youth to provide support and information of resources around our community. I am passionate on youth success, I believe that everyone deserves to be treated equally and with respect. I enjoy my free time hiking, biking with my family and friends. I also love listening to music, dancing and gardening.
