- I ask that each of you who have summer programs remember to ask your clients if transportation is an issue for them. All of us car-owners do have a tendency to forget to ask about this (since most folks have a car) but some single parent households may have challenges getting their kids to and from your programs and unless you ask, they may not tell you.
- We would love to see recommendations for a good nonprofit website designer from everyone! send me an email at abiggs@svtbus.org if you know of anyone!
